A SKY FULL OF STARS

A Sky Full of Stars by Coldplay. Coldplay teamed up with Avicii to produce this song. This song was released in 2014 on the Ghost Album. It reached No.9 on the UK charts. I first heard this song on the radio and I've liked it since then. I added this song to the playlist because it's very uplifting and catchy.

9 to 5

Dolly Parton

The song was written in 1980, it was written for the comedy film 9-5 starring Jane Fonda, Lily Tomlin and Parton in her film debut. The song earned Parton an Academy Award nomination and four Grammy Award nominations, winning her the awards for "Best Country Song" and "Best Country Vocal Performance, Female". And in 2004, Parton's song ranked number 78 on American Film Institute's "100 years, 100 songs".

Kids In America

Kim Wilde

The song was released in the United Kingdom as her debut single in January 1981, the song reached number two on the UK singles chart, number one in Finland and South Africa, and charted in the top 10 of many European charts as well as Australia and New Zealand.

I Wanna Dance With Somebody

Whitney Houston

"I Wanna Dance with Somebody (Who Loves Me)" is a song by Whitney Houston for her second studio album, Whitney. It was released on May 2, 1987. The song received mixed reviews from critics, who praised Houston's vocal performance but critiqued musical arrangement. The single was a success, topping the charts in 13 countries including Australia, Italy, Germany and the UK. In the US, it became her fourth consecutive number one single and sold over one million copies, making it her first platinum single in the US.

I Think We're Alone Now

Tiffany

The song was re-popularized in 1987 when Tiffany covered the song when she was 15. Her version of the song spent two weeks at number 1 on the Billboard hot 100 chart body text

When we were young - Adele

The song was released on 22 January 2016 as the second single from her third album, 25. The song had sold 150,000 digital copies in the United States as an album track. The song reached top 10 in Belgium, Canada, Czech Republic, Finland, Portugal, Scotland, Slovakia, South Africa, Switzerland, the United Kingdom, and top 20 in the United States.

Don't Stop Me Now - Queen

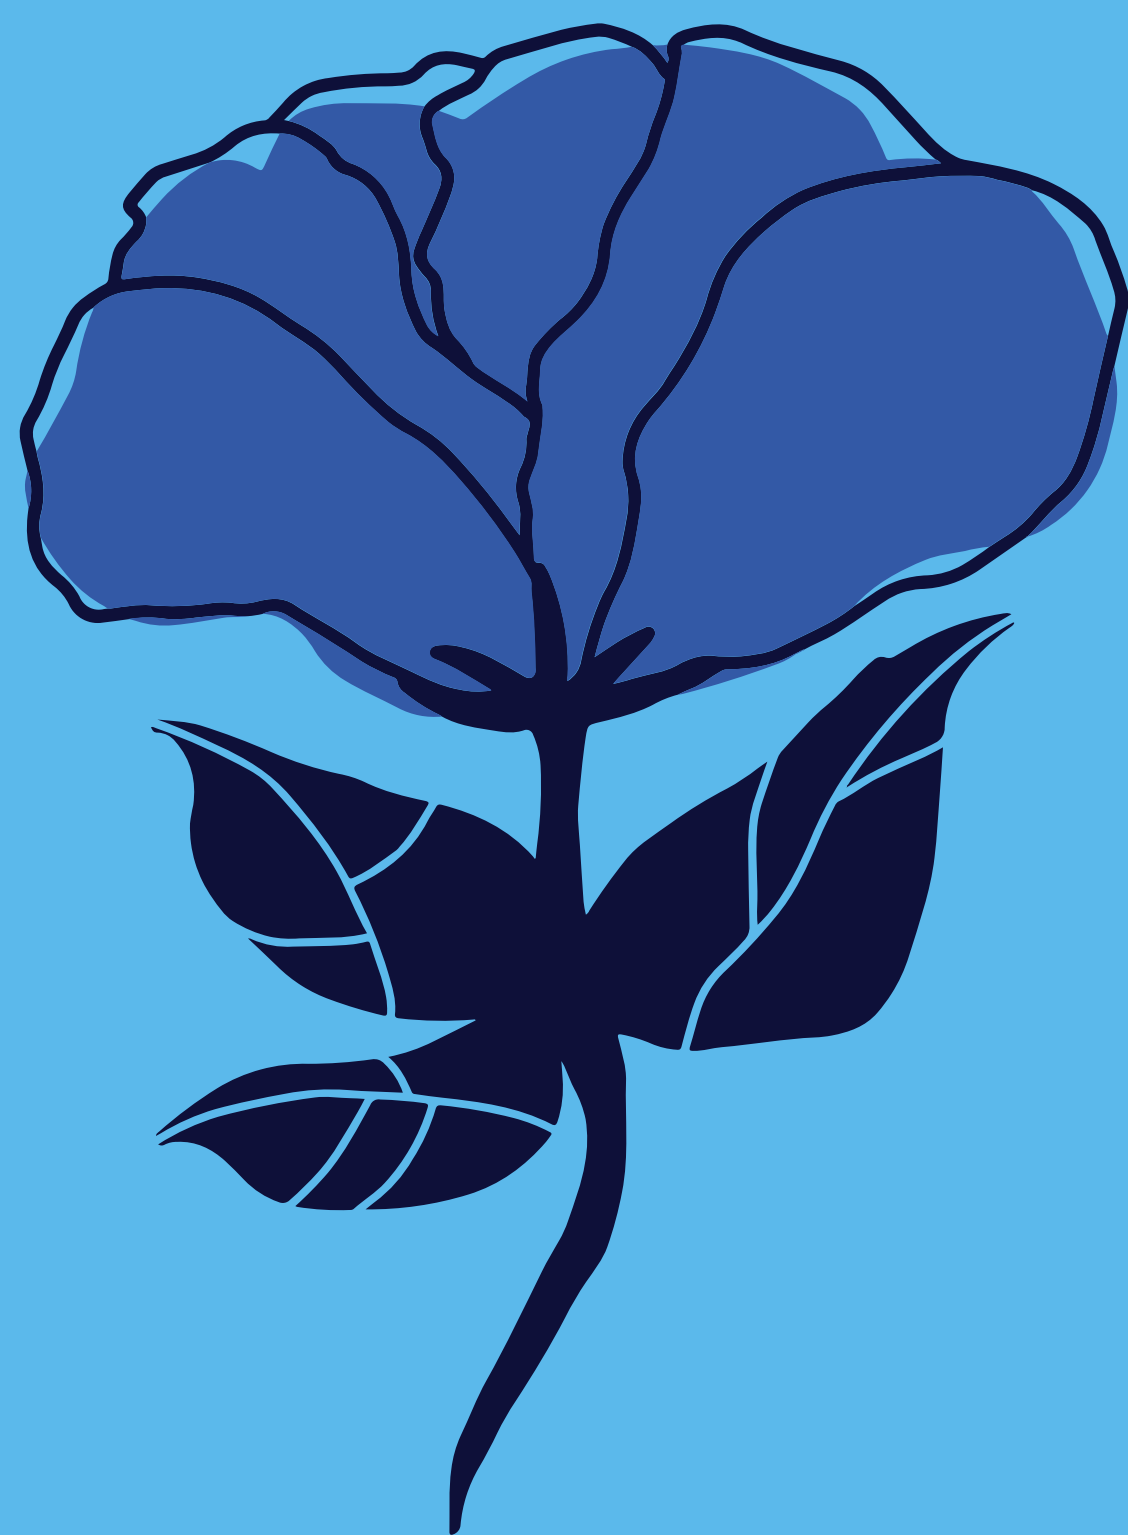

The song was recorded on August 1978 and it was released 26 January 1979. The single reached number 9 in the UK charts but only number 86 in the US; as the album was a top-10 hit, the song got some airplay on U.S. stations despite its low chart ranking as a single. Despite this, the song grew in popularity and continues to grow. Despite its popularity, Brian May, who wrote it, was not a fan of the song as he felt it was celebrating the risky lifestyle of Mercury. He added that he struggled with the lyrics at the time, because it was about a difficult period in Freddie's life.

Imagine – John Lennon. Released 11th October 1971, this song promotes a peace on earth that could possibly happen. It went to number three on the Billboard Hot 100 and reached number one in Canada on the national singles chart, remaining there for two weeks. The song is considered part of the rock genre.

Home – Edward Sharpe and The Magnetic Zeros. Released January of 2010. It went to number 7 in the French charts. Genre is indie folk and country folk. Jade Castrinos, the female vocalist in Edward Sharpe & the Magnetic Zeros stated the lyrics have no deep meaning, they mean literally what they say.
